

Jacques Berghmans

Fund Manager

Jacques is the manager of different TreeTop funds, such as TreeTop Convertible International.

His investment philosophy

His investment philosophy is to identify global themes that could generate significant economic changes. Then, he selects 20 to 30 companies, that in his opinion, offer significant growth potential over the medium term in those themes. To diversify sources of return and risks, their portfolio is at all time invested in three main geographical areas: Europe, Asia and the Americas, and in different economic sectors.

Career history

Jacques manages portfolios invested globally for over 25 years. He began his career in 1981 with Merrill Lynch International, with whom he will work as a financial advisor for 20 years in Amsterdam, Brussels and Luxembourg. For over 5 years, he was a member of Merrill Lynch Chairman's Club and Eagle Club. In 1988 he created with Hubert d'Ansembourg the Star Convertible fund – today TreeTop Convertible International. In 2001, he joined Banque Degroof as fund manager. In 2005, he founded with Hubert d'Ansembourg TreeTop Asset Management.
